

London Biotechnology Network
BioWednesday
1 April 2009
6.00 - 9.00 pm
Belgravia, London

This event is sponsored by the Indiana Economic Development Corporation, Indy Partnership and American Airlines

TOPIC: Using BIO to forge new relationships – A UK – Indiana Road Map.

With BIO, Atlanta just around the corner this evening provides a chance for LBN members to hear from two of BIOs active participants – UK and Indiana to:

- Gather some commercial intelligence of what skills, and partnering opportunities are available in Indiana
- Discover details of the UK and Indiana presence at BIO and support to assist you in making those connections
- Receive top tips on how to make BIO work for you from a serial attendee

1-2-1 Meetings: 16.00 – 18.00hrs

For the chance to meet 1-2-1 with Kristie McKillip prior to the Biowednesday and find out how Indy partnership can specifically help your company in meeting Indiana-based companies you see as potential partners, please email Tony Jones on tjones@londonfirst.co.uk to reserve a 20 minute session.
